EARLY BOOKING INCENTIVE

Those who pay a 15% deposit no later than the 1st of November 2011 and the final balance by the 1st of February 2012 may take advantage of our early booking incentive saving 2.5% off our standard prices.

Please note - these deadlines must be strictly adhered to. This excludes special contracts, special events, Cowes Week and career courses. Bookings with deposits or final balances received after the above dates will be liable for the full price.

Included in the price

Prices include accommodation, evening activities, full board, instruction, hire of boats and equipment, use of buoyancy aids, wetsuits and oilskins as appropriate. Your visit will start with arrival after lunch on the first day, and departing after lunch on the final day. First meal will be dinner on the first evening unless otherwise arranged; anything additional to the above may incur an additional cost.

Additional benefits for groups of 10 or more:

- // Ferry to and from the Isle of Wight via Red Funnel Car Ferry as foot passengers.
- // Free leaders place for every 10 places booked and paid for.
- // Evening activities programme.
- // Promotional material, posters, schools and groups web page access, to assist you with the organisation of your trip.

Ferry transfers

The cost of your residential trip includes free ferry transfers across to the Island. If you book a group of 10 or more, bookings will be made on the Red Funnel Ferry from Southampton to Cowes and return. You will be picked up and brought to the centre unless otherwise stated.

For a small supplement, there is the option of being picked up at Gunwarf Quay (Portsmouth) by a Private Ferry Service, which will bring you straight to our private marina. As this service is a private service, where requested, we will endeavour to book this crossing. During peak months the ferry Company can become very busy - where booking a private ferry isn't possible, you will be booked on the Red Funnel service from Southampton.

NB: The free service from Southampton does not include the high speed Red Jet ferry, which runs to West Cowes. Should you wish to use this service there is an additional charge.

Non-residents

If your group is staying elsewhere on the Island, and wishes to take part in UKSA water sports activities, please contact the Schools & Youth team to discuss your requirements. Evening entertainments and food are not offered to non-residential bookings unless by prior arrangement.

Special dietary requirements

These can be catered for provided we are advised in advance.

Accommodation only

Groups may wish to use the Academy for accommodation only. Contact the Schools & Youth Team for current prices.

Insurance

The Academy carries third party and public liability insurance which provides the basic cover required for outdoor watersports activities. A copy of our Adventure Activities Licencing Authority Insurance can be seen within the Teacher Zone on our website. In the case of school groups, your Local Education Authority may have a scheme that you can subscribe to. In the event of an individual or group cancellation, UKSA will refund as detailed in section 6 of the booking conditions. The Academy strongly advises groups to take additional travel and cancellation insurance in respect of this.

15. Force Majeure

a Whilst our boats carry a comprehensive selection of spares to cover foreseeable events, the nature of the training and the area of operation mean that, from time to time, we may be unable to rectify breakdowns or defects within a scheduled activity.

In such an event UKSA will act with all expediency and do all that is reasonable within its power to rectify the situation to enable the aims of the program to be met. If, in the sole judgement of UKSA, the aims of the program have not been met, it will decide on compensation, if any, to be awarded to participants.

b The UKSA cannot be responsible for matters outside its control.
